videotaped. The deposition will continue from time to time and place to place until concluded.

The United States of America is directed to designate a person or persons to testify on its behalf on the matters identified in Exhibit A.

EXHIBIT A

DEFINITIONS

The following terms have the following meanings, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. SB 14. The term “SB 14” has the meaning ascribed to it in the United States’ Complaint.
2. Administrative Preclearance. The term “Administrative Preclearance” refers to the process, pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, by which the United States Attorney General or a three-judge court of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia reviews “changes to enact or seek to administer any voting qualification or prerequisite to voting, or standard, practice, or procedure with respect to voting different from that in force or effect [on certain dates , depending on the state],” as that process existed prior to the date of the United States Supreme Court’s decision in Shelby County v. Holder, 133 S.Ct. 2612 (2013).
3. Voting Rights Act. The Voting Rights Act refers to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1973 - 1973aa-6.
4. And & or. The connectives “and” and “or” should be construed either conjunctively or disjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.
5. Federal Complaint. The term “Federal Complaint” means Document 1 in Case 2:13-cv-00263 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas.
6. Election Crimes. The term “Election Crimes” means intentional acts or willful failures to act, prohibited by state or federal law, that are designed to cause ineligible persons to participate in the election process; eligible persons to be excluded from the election process; ineligible votes to be cast in an election; eligible votes not to be cast or counted; or other interference with or invalidation of election results. “Election Crimes” includes any criminal form of Voter Fraud.
7. Voter Fraud. The term “Voter Fraud” is defined as fraudulent or deceptive acts committed to influence the act of voting, and includes both criminal and civil offenses and violations. “Voter Fraud” includes, but is not limited to, (1) making or knowingly possession a counterfeit of an official election ballot; (2) signing a name other than one’s own to a petition proposing an initiative, referendum, recall, or nomination of a candidate for office; (3) knowingly signing more than once for the proposition, question, or candidate in one election; (4) signing a petition proposing an initiative or referendum when the signer is not a qualified voter; (5) voting or attempting to vote in the name of another person; (6) voting or attempting to vote more than once during the same election; (7) intentionally making a false affidavit, swearing falsely, or falsely affirming under an oath required by statute regarding one's voting status, including when registering to vote, requesting an absentee ballot or presenting to vote in person; (8) registering to vote without being entitled to register; (9) knowingly making a materially false statement on an application for voter registration or re-registration; (10) voting or attempting to vote in an election after being disqualified or when the person knows that he/she is not eligible to vote; and/or (11) knowingly soliciting or encouraging a person who is not qualified to vote in an election.

8. Present. The term "Present" means May 14, 2014, or any date on which the oral deposition of the United States of America is taken in the above-captioned litigation.

9. Relating. The term "Relating" means concerning, referring, describing, evidencing, supporting, refuting, or constituting, either directly or indirectly.

10. Federal building. The term "Federal Building" means a building owned or occupied by any federal agency or entity, including, but not limited to, any entity which is part of the legislative, judicial, or executive branches of the government of the United States, in the United States, and includes both structures commonly referred to as "buildings" and also tracts of real property.

11. Court. The term "Court" means a Federal Building which is also a federal courthouse or any part of any federal courthouse, in the United States.

12. Requirement. The term "Requirement" means any regulation, statute, guideline, common law, or other legal authority.
